

Lord, Let Our Eyes Be Opened:
Breaking the Chains of Mass Incarceration

October 23-26, 2015

Red Lion Hotel & Conference Center
4751 Lindle Road
Harrisburg, PA 17111

REGISTRATION IS OPEN! Please join us for our relaunch of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches' annual conference (formerly the Pennsylvania Pastors' Conference).

This event is aimed at educating people of faith (clergy and laity) about America's system of mass incarceration. We'll look at:

- religious, sociological, and economic foundations that support the faith community involvement in criminal justice reform efforts;
- racism, inconsistent sentencing guidelines for drug offenses and mandatory minimum requirements that result in disproportionate numbers of poor persons and persons of color behind bars;
- treatment of incarcerated persons, and how (if at all) they are prepared for reentry into the community;
- barriers for returning citizens, issues for communities as they welcome them, and resources to support them; and
- what congregations can do on all of these fronts.

We'll be joined by an exceptional slate of speakers:

- Dr. Harold Dean Trulear, nationally acclaimed founder and director of Healing Communities USA
- Glenn E. Martin, Founder and President of JustLeadershipUSA
- Dr. Geert Dhondt, Assistant Professor at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice
- John Wetzel, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections
- Returning Citizens & criminal justice experts

Healing Communities training is available on Friday prior to the conference (see reverse—separate registration).

Please join us for what promises to be a stimulating and informative event!

Find links to registration information and forms at www.pachurches.org. Also reserve your room at the Red Lion at its great conference rate of $105 + tax (single or double) by calling (717) 939-7841.

1.0 CEUs (continuing education units) are available—provided by Lancaster Theological Seminary at a cost of $25.

Watch for updates on Facebook (same name as conference) or call or write to Sandy Strauss at (717) 545-4761 or s.strauss@pachurches.org for more information.

We also welcome sponsorships. Learn more about how you can help to support this conference by downloading the Sponsorship Form—link available at www.pachurches.org.

Please consider supporting a scholarship for a Returning Citizen or others who cannot attend without assistance. Individuals and congregations that provide scholarships of $200 for full registration for one will be acknowledged in the conference booklet. Additional funds for lodging for those who need it are appreciated as well (Friday & Saturday nights, approximately $235).

If you'd like to be on a mailing list for updates, send an e-mail to Linda Shenck at l.shenck@pachurches.org.

NOTE: Healing Communities is a proven, national model, created by the Annie E. Casey Foundation and faith leaders from across the theological spectrum, to engage congregations in the restoration and healing of their own members who have been impacted by crime and the criminal justice system. (Separate registration/fee: see www.pachurches.org)
