Do you...

- Want to join Jesus in the mission field instead of just warming a pew?
- Feel called to relationally serve others in Jesus' name but need guidance and support?
- Want to help congregations and ministries that have become disconnected from their communities, but need some practical experience?
- Long for the Church to become less of an institution and more a real community?

Want to help the Church become less "come to us" and more "go serve"?

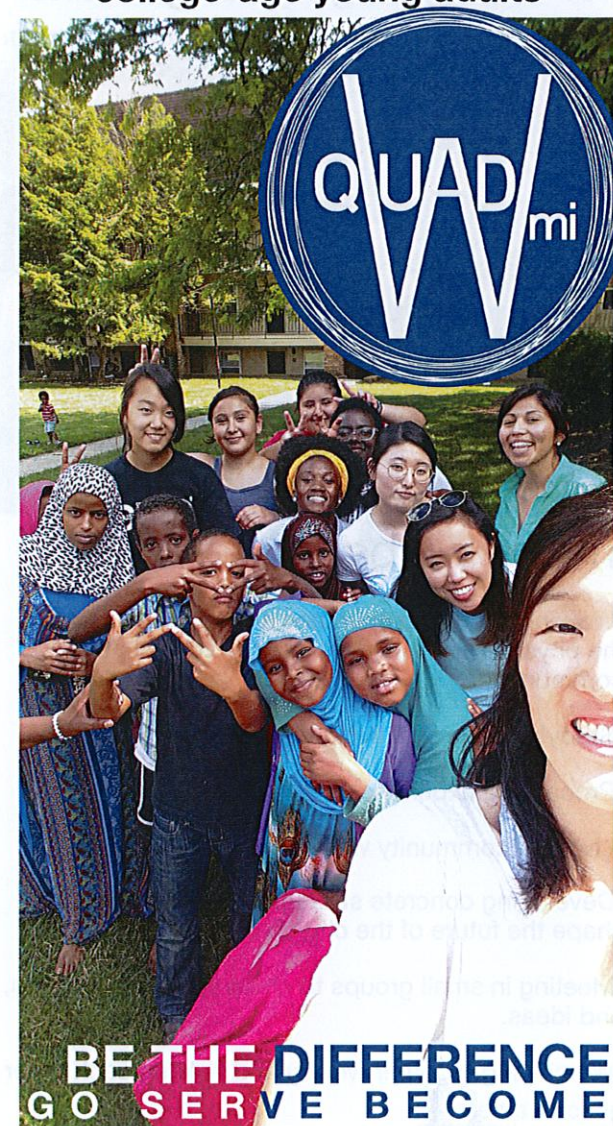

If any of these describe you,
then this internship could be for YOU!

QuadW Missional Internship

A paid summer internship for college-age young adults

BE THE DIFFERENCE GO SERVE BECOME

The QuadW Missional Internship experience exists to provide a deeply significant, potentially life-changing mission experience for college-age young adults.

Interns will be...

- Working with local churches and agencies to meet the physical and spiritual needs of those in their community.
- Studying missional living through weekly training.
- Processing experiences with a mentor.
- Living in community with others.
- Developing concrete strategies and plans that will shape the future of the church and ministry.
- Meeting in small groups to share stories, questions, and ideas.
- Worshiping together weekly and holding each other accountable.

The QuadW Missional Internship experience exists to provide a deeply significant, potentially life-changing mission experience for college-age young adults.

The QuadW Missional Internship partners with Forge America and the United Methodist Church.

To apply, you...

- Must have completed at least your freshman year of college (or equivalent age).
- Should show a willingness to deepen leadership quality.
- Must be willing and dedicated to living in a Christ-centered community.
- Should be self-motivated, with strong communication skills.
- Must desire to grow in your faith journey.

The QuadW Missional Internship is made possible through a very generous grant from the QuadW Foundation.
