

January 14, 2018

Special Guest Retired Bishop Alfred Johnson joins us for worship, lunch and a discussion on Race and Human Relations. Bishop Johnson has served in the United Methodist Church since 1973. He holds a Masters degree in Theology, a Doctor in Urban Ministry, and several honorary doctorates. He has pursued studies in human relations, group dynamics, and leadership at the Princeton Theological School of Continuing Education. He has led several churches through tough challenges. He is a gifted speaker, author, and faculty member who blends his passion for leadership and urban studies with his love of Christ.
