

Rev. Dr. Emilie M. Townes to preach at FUMCOG on Martin Luther King Sunday, January 14, 2018 at 11am

Dr. Townes is a distinguished scholar and leader in theological education, and is dean of Vanderbilt Divinity School in Nashville, Tennessee. She is also the E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Professor of Womanist Ethics and Society. She has been a pioneering scholar in womanist theology, a field of studies in which the historic and current insights of African American women are brought into critical engagement with the traditions of Christian theology.

Don't miss this special community event!

An opportunity for all in the community to meet and dialogue with Dr. Townes on Saturday evening, January 13 at 7 pm at FUMCOG!

- Dr. Townes was a keynote speaker in the Trinity Institute on racism in January 2016. She impressed the audience with her clarity, wisdom, and passion for social, racial and economic justice.
- Dr. Townes' is a prophetic voice for people of all faiths with a commitment for dismantling racism and all expressions of injustice in our society today. Her work and witness honor the life and witness of Dr. King.
- All are invited to Saturday's conversations with Dr. Townes and the Sunday morning 11am worship service.
- A brief statement, Dr. Townes at the 2016 Trinity Institute can be found on YouTube.
