As a participant in the GIRLS ON THE GO event sponsored by the United Methodist Women of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, I take seriously my responsibility and affirm my commitment for the well-being and safety of myself and others. I agree to remain on the site of the event unless I have been granted permission to leave by Mary Ann Repsher or Susan Dziuk. I will attend all scheduled activities, sessions and meals. I will observe the established curfew and will observe designated quiet times and not disturb others. I understand that anything considered illegal for minors (persons under 18) under civil law and criminal law applies to this event. Therefore I will observe all laws. I will not use tobacco, illegal substances, or alcohol, nor will I possess any firearms, weapons or fireworks. I will respect the property and equipment of others and care for the facility which we share. I understand that any damage to the facility will be the responsibility of the person or persons causing the damage and their parent or legal guardian. This covenant is made between each participant and the entire group. I understand that if I break the covenant and if the brokenness cannot be reconciled my parent or legal guardian will be contacted and my participation in this event may be terminated.

SPEAKER FOR THE WEEKEND

Margaret Keefer is making a return visit to Girls on the Go. She has been a youth pastor, worship director and teacher. Through her Grace Again Ministries she has led retreats for women, teens and children. Through music, sharing and interactive activities she empowers, inspires and challenges young women to live the life God intended for them. She is passionate about providing the relevant, timely and unique message that dreams become true through God.
