With special speaker Reverend Rob Renfroe

“Is There a Future for United Methodism?”

Rev. Rob Renfroe is president and publisher of Good News — a national organization committed to the doctrinal integrity and spiritual renewal of The United Methodist Church. He is also Pastor of Discipleship at The Woodlands UMC in Houston, Texas, and the author of four books. Rob has been committed to the reform and renewal of the UMC for 20 years, working to keep the denomination faithful to its scriptural heritage. He and his wife, Peggy, have been married 40 years and are the parents of two adult sons, Stephen and Ian.
