

It takes more than a clean slate to start a new relationship well.

Two SEPARATE
virtual workshops can help!

Clergy Transition Workshop and
Relating with Clergy Spouses (Panel Discussion)

MAY 1, 2021
9:30am - 11:30am

Relating with Clergy Spouses (Panel Discussion)

Open to S/PPRC and any other church leaders

Led by Julie Anderman,
UMC clergy spouse and
Executive Director, Artos
Retreats

Want a healthy start to your relationship with your pastor's spouse? Learn five key questions and how to ask them. Includes a Q&A panel discussion with an SPRC chair and clergy spouses (both genders) - all with experience in multiple pastoral transitions.

Register for MAY 1:
Relating with Clergy
Spouses (Panel)

MAY 15, 2021
9:00am - 11:00am

Clergy Transition
Workshop

Open to Pastors, spouses,
S/PPRC members

Led by Rev. David Woolverton,
UMC Full Elder

This workshop will assist both clergy spouses, clergy and S/PPRC teams in facilitating a positive transition with their new appointments. It's helpful, proactive, dynamic, relational and even, at times, humorous. If you're moving to a new church, or you're a church receiving a new pastor, this workshop is for you!

Register for MAY 15:
Clergy Transition
workshop

Every relationship is unique, so every pastoral transition is unique. Help your team to lead your congregation in the opportunity ahead. Don't wait until July 1 to prepare for next steps in ministry together!
