President United Methodist Women

Matching passions and resources, I am a professional fundraiser with non-profit organizations. I am a homeowner in a neighborhood called Little Flower on the east side Indianapolis and love coming home to tall trees and a 1920's bungalow style home. I moved to Indy after living abroad with the Peace Corps. A church family and friends keep me busy when I am not working in my yard in the warmer weather or training for a half marathon no matter the weather.

I graduated from Truman State University in Kirksville, MO. I am originally from northern Illinois. After college I became a flight attendant for Delta Airlines in Boston, MA. I retired in 2005 and started graduate school at Harvard University while working in retail management. I left Boston in 2008 to transition into the Peace Corps, where I served in Armenia from 2009-2011. I worked for a women's resource NGO setting up organizational structures and building capacity for the organization to grow..

I am a woman of God. I grew up in the United Methodist Church. My mother has always been active in United Methodist Women. As a child I was taught to work for what is right and just in the world. It was at my mother's invitation that I became involved in United Methodist Women through the transformative education now called Mission u. The opportunities I have been afforded through United Methodist Women opened my eyes to injustice, but also opened my heart to faith, hope, and love in action.
