The Provisional Journey: Residency in Ministry

Welcome! Provisional membership in the Eastern Pennsylvania Annual Conference (EPA) is a journey. The EPA Conference Board of Ordained Ministry invites you to partner with us as you undertake the Residency in Ministry (RIM) program and move toward ordination and full connection in the United Methodist Church. During this provisional period, we pray you will continue to learn and grow, cultivate relationships with new ministry partners, and develop lifelong patterns for effective clergy leadership. Utilizing covenant groups, clergy mentors, theological study, and supervision—the RIM program is designed to support you as you move from initial readiness to further effectiveness in ministry.

During this time, you may be developing new relationships:

- With persons in your new appointment
- With a Staff/Pastor Parish Relations Committee or personnel committee
- With your District Superintendent
- With a Clergy Mentor, assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry
- With your RIM peer group, comprised of other commissioned /provisional clergy
- With the Board of Ordained Ministry

These relationships should afford opportunities to grow, gain new partners in ministry, and receive support for your journey into the clergy covenant.

The provisional period is two (2) to eight (8) years following the completion of the seminary degree and prior to election to full membership and ordination. During Annual Conference, the Bishop commissions persons recommended by the Board of Ordained Ministry and approved by the clergy session. Commissioning inaugurates the provisional period and brings the commissioned person into the clergy covenant. Commissioned ministers serve appointments during the provisional years in areas appropriate to their calling.

During the provisional period, you will be encouraged to develop dynamic and effective leadership and to carry out the church's mission of making of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. To insure those outcomes, the EPA Conference is committed to creating an appropriate process for training its provisional members.

We anticipate that you, as a provisional member, will emerge from this journey having 1) deepened your faith in Christ, 2) honed effective leadership skills, and 3) developed habits, attitudes, and ministry practices that will span a lifetime of service to Christ and the church. Provisional members will grow in collegiality, reflect/think theologically about the practice of ministry, experience a mentoring relationship with a seasoned minister, and have their function in ministry assessed through supervision.

The provisional time involves assessment of the candidate's self in relation to the church and the church in relation to the candidate. This is a time of mutual evaluation of call and commitment within our connectional system. The integrity of the provisional time is strengthened not only when a call is confirmed and leads to ordination and full membership, but also when people are appropriately redirected to other Christian expressions of vocational calling.

Dimensions of the Provisional Journey

Mentor and Peer Group Ministries

In your relationships with both your clergy mentor and your provisional peer group, you will be encouraged to explore and develop your vocational identity, reflect theologically on the practice of ministry, and review the exercise of authority and power in a new clergy role.

On Site Evaluation

During the on-site evaluation, you will be observed in your ministry setting. A representative of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) will observe and honestly discuss your leadership style and effectiveness.

Annual Review

The annual review includes supervision reports written by your District Superintendent, your SPRC, your RIM peer group leader(s), and your clergy mentor.

Time Commitment and Accountability

Provisional members are expected to attend all events related to the provisional journey as outlined in the RIM Manual. In the rare occasion when a family or congregational emergency prevents attendance, an excused absence may be granted. Provisional members are expected to notify the RIM peer group leader(s). An absence for events that can be scheduled at other times will be considered unexcused. Attendance at RIM events will be noted as a factor in evaluating provisional members. Unexcused absences may affect the provisional member's time in the RIM program.

RIM Resident Requirements

REQUIREMENT #1: MENTORING RELATIONSHIPS

Residents meet regularly with a mentor in a covenant of mutual accountability. This mentoring component is an opportunity for you to explore your vocational identity and grow in your understanding of effective ministry. It provides places where you can share ministry experiences (past, present, and future) and receive feedback. It provides opportunities for theological reflection, accountability for spiritual nurture, and support for the covenant building relationships.

After setting goals and developing commitment details, residents and mentors will sign the Clergy Mentor—Provisional Covenant Form and complete and sign the Clergy Mentor—Provisional Member 6 Month Report Form together. Residents and mentors each will keep a copy of these documents and the resident will mail a copy to the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) in six (6) month intervals. (See Appendix A – The Provisional Member Program Clergy-Mentor – Provisional Member 6 Month Report Form for these forms & Residents In Ministry Dates for details.) With these deadlines in mind, the initial meeting of new resident and mentor pairs should occur beforehand at the initiative of the resident.

Mentors are clergy in full connection in the Annual Conference approved by District Superintendents and trained by the BOM. Mentors cannot serve simultaneously as one resident's mentor and peer group leader. Members of the BOM are also discouraged from serving as a mentor for a resident who will be interviewed by his/her team. A person may not serve as mentor for a resident on staff in his/her church.

Mentors are responsible for three areas:

1. Supervising the resident's progress in developing vocational goals and skills.
2. Sharing with the resident in the mutual practice of servant leadership within the church.
3. Developing a covenant of mutual accountability for spiritual and theological growth and for decision-making in the pursuit of effective ministry.

Mentors carry out their responsibilities by:

1. Attending the mentor training session(s) conducted by the BOM.
2. Planning with the resident their work together for the year, writing together their mutual covenant of accountability, and forming their learning agreement.
3. Meeting regularly with his/her resident at a specified time and place to carry out the work they have planned.
4. Reviewing and exploring areas of needed growth as necessary.
5. Submitting by January 6th each year an annual report, jointly signed by the mentor and resident, to the BOM Registrar. The report will describe their work together (See Appendix A). The report will NOT evaluate their work together and will NOT recommend for or against continuance. The report will become part of the resident's permanent file. Complete file requires jointly signed reports from the mentor and the resident (or one filled out by both parties, signed by both parties).
6. Serving as the resident's mentor for all the years of residency, if possible.

If possible, the covenantal relationship between the mentor and the resident should last all the years of residency. If the need for mentor reassignment develops, the mentor and the resident should contact the BOM. For example, a change may be needed if a new appointment makes it difficult to meet due to increased geographic distance or if the mentoring relationship does not prove to be a helpful/productive match. Failure to meet this requirement may delay full membership in the Annual Conference.

REQUIREMENT #2: PEER GROUP PARTICIPATION

As a resident, you are required to participate in a monthly peer group from September to May for at least two years of your provisional period.

If an emergency prohibits you from attending a meeting, you must contact the peer group leader(s) in advance of the meeting. One (1) unexcused absence or more than two (2) excused absences are a failure to meet this requirement and may extend the provisional process.

Peer Group Leaders/Facilitators

Peer group leaders are qualified clergy in full connection or qualified individuals selected/trained by the BOM.

Peer group leaders have the following responsibilities:

1. Establish a supportive community that offers fellowship, sharing, mutual support and accountability through a covenant relationship of confidentiality.
2. Assist in the development of the residents' tasks and goals for the year.
3. Facilitate monthly meetings.
4. Assure the orderly process of the peer group's meetings.

Peer group leaders submit a report by January 6th of each year to the BOM Registrar. (Note: the peer group will continue to meet through May.) The report should pertain only to the resident's attendance, cooperation, and degree of participation, not content of discussion. (See Appendix B – RIM Peer Group Report.)

A person may not serve as a peer group leader for a resident on staff in his/her church. A member of a BOM interview team is discouraged from serving as a peer group leader. Mentors cannot serve simultaneously as one resident's mentor and peer group leader.

REQUIREMENT #3: ON-SITE EVALUATION

As a resident, you are required to participate in an on-site evaluation by the end of May of your first provisional year. A representative of the BOM will perform the on-site evaluation.

During the on-site evaluation, the BOM representative will:

1. Observe the resident in action at his/her ministry site (i.e., worship for those seeking Elders orders and primary or secondary setting for those seeking Deacons orders).
2. Provide feedback to the resident in both a written report and one-on-one conversation following observation.
3. Submit the report within one month to the BOM. (See Appendix C: On-site Evaluation Forms.)

The resident will receive advance notice about the visit so he/she may be present and prepared.

REQUIREMENT #4: CEU's AND OTHER CONTINUING EDUCATION

As per the Clergy Checklist and Annual Charge Conference requirements, all residents are required to complete 2 CEU experiences with CEU certification. Suggested topics include: Biblical Studies, Church Growth, Computer Education, Leadership Development, Pastoral Care, Prayer/Meditation, Social Justice, Stewardship, Team Building, Theology, Time Management, Holistic Health, Forms of Worship.

Financial Support for Clergy

Active clergy (who are members of and/or serving within the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, including retired clergy under appointment) may receive up to $400 a year for continuing education. Commissioned clergy may receive an additional $400 which may be used in part or in total during their probationary period.

To be eligible for financial support, the continuing education event must be deemed consistent with the Board of Ordained Ministry's policy for granting CEU credit.

To be considered for financial support, you must send the following information to Rev. Robin G. Fisher at probfisher@gmail.com:

1. Name, address, and phone number
2. Email address
3. Social Security number (in its entirety)
4. Relationship to the Annual Conference (e.g., elder, deacon, local pastor, commissioned)
5. Amount requested (If commissioned, designate whether the amount requested is from the additional $400 mentioned above.)
6. Amount provided by the congregation
7. Amount provided by the pastor
8. The name and date of event
9. How the event will relate to present and/or future ministry
10. Address where funds should be sent (if different from above)

Once eligibility has been determined, the request for financial support will be forwarded to the treasurer of the BOM for consideration.

Continuing Education Units and financial support will not be offered for the following experiences: work camps, mission trips without formal instruction, independent studies that are not overseen through a formal institution or instructor, spiritual retreats, counseling sessions, vacations abroad, ministry/pulpit exchanges and book studies.

REQUIREMENT #5: SUPERVISION OF A DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

As a provisional member, you are appointed to serve under the supervision of your District Superintendent. This requirement applies to both provisional Deacons and Elders.

The role of the District Superintendent is the same for residents as for other clergy in the district. In addition, the District Superintendent shall submit an annual report by January 6th to the BOM Registrar. (See Appendix D—District Superintendent Evaluation.)

District Superintendents will work with residents to assign clergy (Elders or Deacons in full connection) who have the gifts and required training to be effective mentors.

Residency in Ministry Team and Contact Information

The RIM Team is appointed by the BOM for oversight of the RIM program on behalf of the Board. The RIM Team shall include members of the Board of Ministry, laity and clergy, Elders and Deacons, plus other clergy and lay persons as needed.

The RIM Team shall have the responsibility for training Elders and Deacons who will serve as mentors; recruiting clergy and qualified laity to serve as facilitators of resident peer groups; working with District Superintendents in the assignment of mentors to residents; training on-site evaluators and coordinating their visits to the sites of resident appointments; and supervising the RIM Orientation and RIM Peer Group meetings.

The Team will conduct an annual assessment of the RIM program and recommend to the Conference Board of Ministry ways the program may be enhanced.

Important and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) about RIM

What is the Residency in Ministry (RIM) Program?

Residency in Ministry is a program designed by the Conference Board of Ministry to provide provisional members of the EPA Annual Conference with support and guidance that will nourish continued theological development, spiritual formation, and skill acquisition.

As the 2016 Book of Discipline indicated, “Provisional members are on trial in preparation for membership in full connection in the annual conference as Deacons or Elders. They are on probation as to character, servant leadership and effectiveness in ministry” (§ 327).

The RIM Program helps to prepare residents for membership in full connection. As noted in §326 of the Book of Discipline, RIM has three broad goals:

1. Extending theological education by using covenant groups and mentoring to support the practice and work of Residents’ ministry as servant leaders.
2. Contemplating the grounding of ordained ministry.
3. Understanding covenant ministry in the life of the conference.

What is the difference between my Provisional Journey and RIM?

The provisional journey refers to the time between commissioning as a provisional member and ordination (or discontinuing provisional membership). RIM is Residency in Ministry, our Annual Conference’s way of preparing and supporting provisional members. RIM is the tool and program; provisional is the adjective referring to status or relationship (in earlier years, probationary).

What is the philosophy of the RIM Program?

We are accountable to one another as a covenant community. Each resident is preparing for ordination into an order. So that the benefits of life within this order and the larger church may be realized, every effort shall be made to develop the holy habits of the disciplines, including daily prayer, meditation, Bible reading, and regular retreats.

Who participates in the RIM Program?

1. Provisional members of the Annual Conference who have met the requirements of §324 of the 2016 Book of Discipline participate in the RIM program. A PERSON MUST COMPLETE EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS (M.DIV. BUT NOT CPE UNIT) BEFORE THEY BEGIN RIM.
2. Provisional members who transfer into the EPA Conference from other annual conferences of the United Methodist Church are part of the RIM program.
3. Ordained clergy from other denominations who have been received by the Annual Conference as provisional members participate in the RIM program.

How long do people participate in the RIM program?

Persons who are commissioned ministers will participate in the RIM Program for a minimum of two years (2016 Discipline, §326). We refer to participants as residents.

Persons who are commissioned ministers will participate in the RIM Program a period equivalent to of at least two years of full-time service. For those appointed to:

Full-time = 2 years minimum

$\frac{3}{4}$ = 3 years minimum

$\frac{1}{2}$ = 4 years

$\frac{1}{4}$ = 8 years

The maximum number of years allowed in the RIM program is eight years prior to applying for ordination and full connection (2016 Discipline, ¶327).

What if your appointment is in another Annual Conference?

If a resident resides in a location outside of the EPA Conference, that resident has two (2) options:

1. Make arrangements to participate fully in the EPA Conference RIM program.
2. Participate in a similar RIM program in the Conference in which the resident resides. (If the second option is used, pre-approval from the EPA Conference RIM Council is required.)

Attendance at the RIM Orientation is strongly encouraged even if the resident is participating in a RIM program in another Annual Conference. Participation in the RIM Orientation allows for the building of relationships in preparation of the resident's return to the EPA Conference.

It is the responsibility of the residents residing in a conference outside of EPA to obtain signatures on all forms required by EPA RIM residents located on the checklist. Failure to meet RIM requirements may delay ordination and acceptance into full membership in the EPA Annual Conference.

What about Residents in the National Guard or Military Reserves?

The BOM supports those residents who also serve in the National Guard or in the Armed Forces Reserves. However, we are aware that there is a possibility that a resident may be called into active duty while still in the RIM process. In that event, that person will have to complete the portion(s) of the RIM process that were missed while serving in active duty. The scope and duration of this work will be determined on a case-by-case by the BOM.

What about maternity/paternity leaves?

The Book of Discipline grants twelve weeks for maternity/paternity leave. If leave is granted by the Board of Ordained Ministry, with approval by the local church, the RIM requirements will also be suspended for the same length of time.

What about Residents in Ministry from other Conferences?

Persons from other conferences will be allowed to participate in the EPA Conference RIM process with approval from their annual conference when serving within the EPA Conference bounds.

What about appointment changes during RIM?

Appointment changes during RIM happen. During any change or move, a resident must remain connected and in communication with the BOM and his/her clergy mentor.

WRITING REQUIREMENTS

Candidate Requirements for Presentation and Written Material

Excellence in ministry requires excellence in verbal expression, whether written or spoken. Because of this, the Board of Ordained Ministry has set the following standards to apply to all written responses to meet the requirements for commissioning and ordination as Deacon or Elder. They are intended to aid candidates in the preparation of material that will be professional in appearance, uniform in format, and complete in terms of the requirements of the Board.

1. All materials shall be submitted by January 6th of the year you wish to interview with the Board seeking full ordination. Materials will not be accepted beyond the due date. If not received or postmarked by the due date, the BOM interview may be cancelled.

2. Format

- A. All written material shall be typewritten or computer generated.
- B. All written material shall be presented on 8.5 x 11 inch, 20-24 pound paper. It shall be clean and neat in appearance and free of errors. Proofreading is expected even if you use a spelling, grammar, or punctuation analysis program.
- C. In making corrections, do not use strikeouts, interlineations, or cross-outs of letters or words.
- D. Set the left margin at 1.5 inches, and all others at 1 inch.
- E. All pages shall be numbered in order.
- F. Font should be between 10 and 12 points. Print must be legible and readable.
- G. An author must be cited when a direct quotation is used. Plagiarism will not be tolerated! Theologians, authors, or works cited should be so noted. Endnotes or Footnotes (or MLA or APA) are acceptable for quoted sources. Scriptural references should be cited parenthetically, identifying the translation used.
- H. Spacing: All responses should be double-spaced, with the exception of indented quotations.
- I. All written material should be submitted to Interview Teams in the appropriate format.
- J. Each response shall begin with the stated Discipline question.

3. Length of Response

Responses to all written material should be clear and concise, but should demonstrate the following:

- A. Familiarity with theological disciplines and doctrines.
- B. Familiarity with the Doctrinal Standards of The United Methodist Church.
- C. Familiarity with scripture as the source of our faith.
- D. Familiarity with the history of the Christian Church and the history and traditions of the United Methodist Church.
- E. For those preparing for the Order of Deacon, familiarity with the field of specialization should be demonstrated.
- F. For each disciplinary question, write no more than three pages.

4. Audience

As you write your materials, consider the following audiences:

- A. The audience for the disciplinary questions is the Board of Ordained Ministry.
- B. The audience for the autobiographical and religious development essays is the Board of Ordained Ministry.
- C. The audience for the Bible Study is an unknown group. A hypothetical leader should be able to use your material easily (based on what appears on the page).
- D. The audience for the sermons and bulletins is the local church in which the materials was shared.
- E. The audience for the fruitfulness project is the Board of Ordained Ministry.

5. Please note that your own beliefs and theological journey should be reflected in your responses.

Growth is expected during the provisional period, and therefore, responses to ordination questions should reflect growth. As such, restatement of an answer provided for commissioning is considered an inadequate response. Written work should reflect growth acquired through the practice of ministry. As such, it is highly recommended written responses reflect the provisional member's practice of ministry. In short, 'what does it look like?'

It is the candidate's responsibility to submit good content, written in the correct form. Give careful attention to the appearance of your work. Is it attractive and easy to read? Are there any typing errors or misspelled words? Poorly written work may be (and has been) returned or rejected.

The Board of Ordained Ministry looks for exceptional candidates to lead the church. The written material submitted can and should be a sample of the quality of work, which indicates the quality of the candidacy of the individual submitting that work. Remember that this is a professional interview, dress as such and present yourself as such. It is the opinion of the Board of Ordained Ministry that Christ and His Church deserve no less at any level than the best of which we are capable.

May God bless you in this endeavor.
