Menno E. Good went home to be with his Lord in the early hours of October 6, 2020 at Dock Woods Retirement Community in Lansdale, PA.

Menno, born in Lancaster, PA on October 13, 1933, was the son of the late Menno Myer Good and Anna Eckman Good. He is survived by his beloved wife of 66 years, Barbara Kramer Good, a son Stephen (Jimei), daughter Joy Stover (Mark), and grandchildren (Kevin, David, Jimmy, Kalie, Chelsea and Jenna).

Menno graduated from Ambler High School, Lycoming College (Summa Cum Laude), Garrett Theological Seminary (with Distinction), and received his D. Min. from Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary (with Honors).

Menno, an ordained United Methodist Minister, began his appointments while in college. As a member of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference he served: Chiques, St. Matthew's, Lehman Memorial, Elizabethtown, and West Lawn. He served as the Northeast Philadelphia District Superintendent from 1986 to 1992. His missionary ministry included trips to England, India, and Puerto Rico. After his retirement in 2000, he was appointed to serve Montgomery Square.

Menno's passion was preaching and he had a genuine love for people. He began and ended his ministry leading congregations into a new church.

Menno loved spending time with his family, trains, and baseball. He will be remembered for his sense of humor, bright smile, and infectious laugh.

An outside memorial service will be held at Montgomery Square United Methodist Church, 1900 County Line Road, North Wales, PA on Saturday, October 10, 2020 at 11 am. Following the current PA requirements, masks and social distancing are requested. There will be a private internment.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Montgomery Square United Methodist Church, North Wales.
