Informational Notes

All drivers during youth ministry-related events must have a good driving record. It is best practice that all drivers of private vehicles used to transport youth be 25 years of age and must meet the stringent requirements of current insurance for their vehicles and a valid PA OLN and vehicle registration with current inspections on all participating vehicles. While we understand that older youth may drive themselves to and from events, we will not give any youth permission to ride home with any other youth; this must come from the parents themselves.
